

9 11 01

Terror & Remembrance

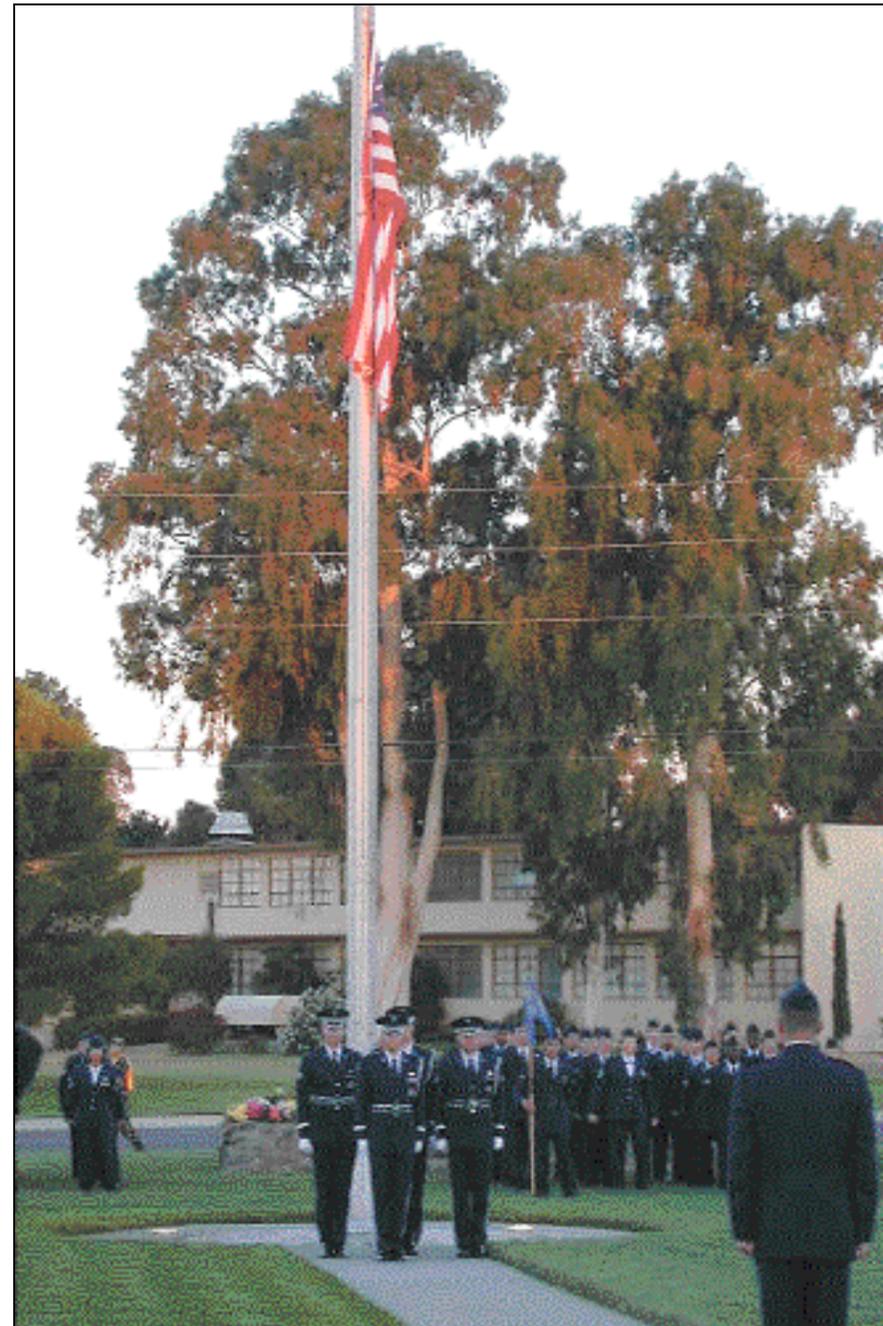

Staff Sgt. Jim Verchio / 60th AMW Public Affairs

Seven media outlets showed up to Travis to tell California about the base's ceremony.

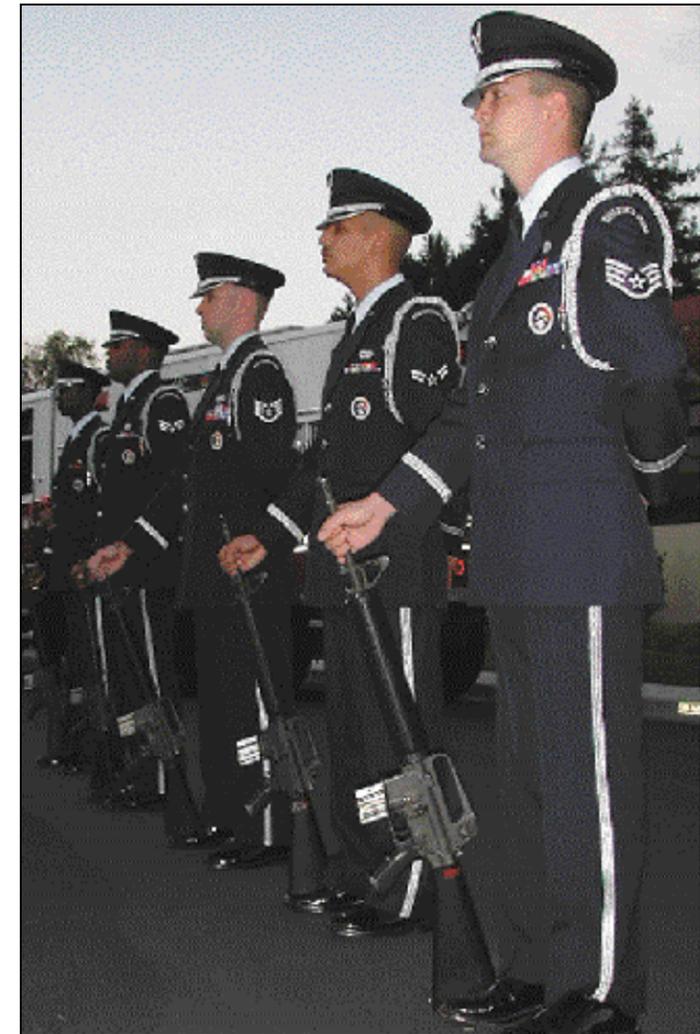

Staff Sgt. Jim Verchio / 60th AMW Public Affairs

Members of the Navy's VQ-3 detachment were on hand for the remembrance ceremony.

Staff Sgt. Jim Verchio / 60th AMW Public Affairs

Airman 1st Class Alice Moore / 60th AMW Public Affairs

(Left), Members of the Travis Honor Guard raise the flag to half staff. The flag remained at half staff for a 24-hour period following the ceremony. (Above), Members of the Honor Guard stand ready to render the 21-gun salute.

Tailwind Staff

Members of Team Travis took time to remember the events of Sept. 11, 2001, Wednesday in an early morning reveille ceremony at Wing Headquarters. Civilian, military members and community leaders turned out for the ceremony that included remarks from Col. Dave Lefforge, 60th Air Mobility Wing commander, a 21-gun salute, the playing of Taps and a flag-raising ceremony. The events concluded with the spectators singing "God Bless America."